JEAN-FREDERIC BOURDIER

“Sculpture” At RT

A photographer, painter and sculptor. Born in 1956 in Banyuls sur Mer (France). Fifth generation of a family of painters and photographers. In his early career he worked as a fashion photographer in Paris and only in the late 1980's created his first sculptures and paintings. His work has been exhibited in France, Portugal, Vancouver (Canada), and New York (USA). Bourdier moved to Portugal in 2010, where he focuses on sculpture. Working with different medium such as marble, onyx and bronze, which are now shown At RT Lisbon.

Since 2014, his monumental pieces were exhibited at Portuguese monuments such as Mosteiro da Batalha, and Sintra Arte Pública.

His works are in private collections in France, Switzerland, USA, Sweden, Germany, Portugal, Russia and Lebanon.

In 2018, his sculpture was shown and sold at PAD Paris (Paris Art and Design) and he is also creating a powerful new sculpture for PAD London 2019, both for the Portuondo Gallery, Paris.
